STAT

I have your letter of 22 February and want to let you know that I have talked to some of my senior officers here about your interest in the Central Intelligence Agency.

We do not need to tell you how glad we are when a man of your valuable executive experience looks in our direction. As I mentioned to you last week, our organization has reached a point in its development where our personnel situation has considerably stabilized and in the upper brackets we are now doing almost no recruiting and then only when very special area, language or other such technical skills are involved. We will, of course, lose some of our senior people from time to time and we will be glad to keep your letter in mind. However, I do not know of any requirement coming up which would be of interest to a person of your training and stature.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

February 11, 1961

Dear Mr. Director:

Before I leave my present position as Deputy Director of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, I should appreciate the opportunity to confer with you on a personal matter. Therefore, I write to ask you to have your secretary telephone my office, code 113, extension 3464, and give my secretary a day and time when it would be convenient for me to come to your office to see you.

Because of an arrangement made between the two Administrations, I've been serving since January 20 as acting director here, in order to assist the new director-designate in bringing about an orderly transfer of responsibilities. Now that Frank Ellis has been named the new director, I expect my service here to terminate shortly.

Allen, your willingness to see me at your earliest convenience this month will be genuinely appreciated.

Sincerely,

John S. Patterson
Acting Director
